Guidance on Temporary Tent Structures

Olympia – As businesses and residents look for alternatives to indoor dining or gatherings around Washington State, they may be considering erecting tents or other temporary structures.

The State Fire Marshal's Office encourages individuals to contact their local fire agency with any question or concern regarding fire and life safety requirements. Depending on the specific situations, a permit or other requirements may apply.

For further information about these recommendations, contact the State Fire Marshal's Office at (360) 596-3929.

The State Fire Marshal's Office is a Bureau of the Washington State Patrol, providing fire and life safety services to the citizens of Washington State including inspections of state licensed facilities, plan review of school construction projects, licensing of fire sprinkler contractors and pyrotechnic operators, training Washington States firefighters, and collecting emergency response data.
