Updated: WSP Detectives Seek Help Identifying Possible Witness to Shooting

Olympia – WSP Detectives are seeking the public's assistance with identifying the person in these photos. This individual is a person of interest in the shooting that occurred at the Capitol Campus just after 2 p.m. on December 12, 2020. They are not a suspect in the shooting but may be a material witness with information about the shooting. Detectives would like to speak to the person in the photos about the events that led up to the shooting. Additional photos attached.

Anyone with information or video of the incident, including the minutes just prior to the shooting, or that is able to identify the person in this photo, is encouraged to contact WSP detectives.

If you have information that may help detectives in this case contact Detective Sergeant Matt Wood at 360-704-2955 or by email at sistips@wsp.wa.gov.
