WSP seeks help in locating driver from SR 109 hit and run

OCEAN CITY – Washington State Patrol (WSP) detectives are seeking the public's assistance in locating a vehicle and driver involved in an injury hit and run collision on State Route 109 near Ocean City on Monday night.

Michael P. Faigenblum, 31, of Seattle, was riding a bicycle on the shoulder of State Route 109 near Burrows Road the evening of June 21, 2021, when he was struck from behind by an unknown passenger car. The impact caused Faigenblum to separate from the bicycle and land in the ditch. The involved vehicle fled the scene.

A passerby found Faigenblum just after 11 p.m. Faigenblum sustained non-life threatening injuries and was transported by aid to Community Hospital.

The fleeing passenger car likely has damage to the front end and windshield. It also is missing a passenger side mirror.

Any witnesses to the collision, or anyone with information leading to the running vehicle or driver are encouraged to contact the WSP on our non-emergency line at (360) 473-0300 and selecting "Zero" for dispatch.
