RESULTS: “No Tippy Turkeys” Emphasis Patrol

Bellingham, Wash. – The Washington State Patrol (WSP), in collaboration with the Washington Traffic Safety Commission (WTSC), conducted their “No Tippy Turkey” emphasis patrol on Wednesday, November 26, 2025.

The emphasis was conducted in Bellingham, WA around Western Washington University (WWU) area. The “No Tippy Turkey” emphasis included participation from WSP District 7 Target Zero Team (TZT), Bellingham Police Department, and Whatcom County Sheriff’s Office.

The results from the “No Tippy Turkey” emphasis are as follows:

- DUI – 8
- Speed – 48
- Seatbelt – 6
- Distracted Driving – 2
- Other Arrests – 5
- Total Contacts – 118

As we continue into the holiday season, WSP would like to remind the motoring public to make safe and responsible decisions behind the wheel. Your commitment to sober, attentive, and courteous driving helps keep Washington roadways safe for everyone.
